Documentation of AI Tools Usage

Regarding the use of generative artificial intelligence tools such as chatbots, image generators, programming applications and paraphrasing or translation tools, I hereby document that I used generative artificial intelligence tools, to

- search for literature.
- proofread parts of the thesis and improve the linguistic style.

Chapter 6

Using Literature and other Resources

The APA citation style¹ requires different citation macros, depending on the usage and the occurrence of the reference in the text.

6.1 Narrative Citations

For narrative citations, the reference is used as the subject or object of the sentence. The year is placed after the author's name in parentheses. To create this kind of citation use

\textcite{keys}.
```

Example: Daniel et al. (2018) give a brief introduction to LaTeX, whereas Kopka and Daly (2003) and Oetiker et al. (2021) go into more detail.

6.2 Narrative Citations Within Parentheses

If a reference is to be used within parentheses, these must be omitted from the citation. The associated command is

\nptextcite{keys}.
```

Example: In any case, it is recommended to obtain literature on the topic of LaTeX (e.g., Daniel et al., 2018; Kopka & Daly, 2003; Oetiker et al., 2021).

6.3 Parenthetical Citations

Parenthetical citations are used when the reference should be cited at the end of a sentence or statement. The author's name and year are enclosed in parentheses and separated by a comma. In this case, use

\parencite{keys}.
```

Example: For LaTeX, there are short introductions (Daniel et al., 2018), as well as more comprehensive works (Kopka & Daly, 2003; Oetiker et al., 2021).
